Azalea Hino-Crimson

A good representation of the new Azalea introduced by us in 1944. Photo was taken when almost finished blooming to show its "NON-FADING" quality.

It is a cross of Hinodegiri and Amoena, but hardier than Hinodegiri. An excellent grower, with glossy dark green foliage. The flower is a showy, clean crimson-red. Good for forcing.

Back in 1921 "John Vermeulen, Grower of Evergreens" started as one of the first commercial propagators of nursery stock in this vicinity. Much has happened since. Many pleasant business relations have been encountered, many new acquaintances made, good times, hard times. In the Spring of 1946, "John Vermeulen, Grower of Evergreens" became "John Vermeulen & Son," and in July of the same year "John Vermeulen & Son, Inc." We appreciate your past patronage and are pleased that we have been able to serve you. We now look forward to the future and hope that it may be a bright one for you and for us.

— TALL, NARROW, HARDY YEWS! —

Out of many media seedlings, 30 were selected in 1932. After twelve years of testing, 10 were picked out as truly worth while. They have given no problems in hardiness nor growing habits which are substantially as sketched above.

From 2 1/4" pots, limit—25 of each variety, each $.35

TAXUS MEDIA PILARIS (Pillar Yew) Long, narrow, medium dark needles. Narrow growing habit. Short upward sloping branches. (SOLD OUT).

TAXUS MEDIA PILARIS GRANDIFOLIA (Bigleaf Yew) Exactly similar in shape and growth as pilaris, but the needles are enormous, similar to Sciadopitys. The effect is rich and unusual.

TAXUS MEDIA PYRAMIDALIS (Pyramid Yew) A fast growing yew with vertical branches and striking black-green needles. Truly a rich, showy, full-bushed column.

TAXUS MEDIA PYRAMIDALIS ROBUSTA (Obelisk Yew) Similar to Pyramidalis, but heavier branched. The needles are large and more glossy.

TAXUS MEDIA STRICTA (Narrowbush Yew) The needles are short and thin, giving a compact effect which the almost vertical branches and dwarf, narrow shape augments.

TAXUS MEDIA STRICTA VERIDIS (Grassgreen Yew) Similar in every way to Stricta, except the needles, which are larger and a gay, bright green, both Winter and Summer.

IMPORTED HARDY NURSERY STOCK

Importing nursery stock can be made easy and profitable with attention and care. We are assured of this attention and care at our source of supply and enroute and we assure you the same in receipt and repacking. Only plants in healthy condition will be repacked. All of the varieties offered herein were tested by us last Spring with practically no losses. We suggest that this stock be planted in well prepared soil after soaking the roots in "Transplantone" or similiar product and left for one or two years. Keep under shade for the first Summer.

SPECIMEN LANDSCAPE STOCK!!

I have for sale a block of large Taxus that you would thrill to see. Every plant is a specimen. They are the original stock plants of the Taxus cusp. Vermeulen and Taxus Media Kelseyi plus a few Taxus Media Hicksi and Taxus cusp. brevifolia nana. As such they have always been well cared for and kept in the best of condition.

T. VERMEULEN (Upright Brevifolia)—about 100 plants in sizes from 4-4½' base and 5½-6' height to 5½' base and 7' height ranging in price from $35.00 to $85.00 each. These have been grown in a general pyramid form but a few are rounded or globular in shape.

T. KELSEYI (Berrybush Yew)—15 plants in sizes from 6' width and 5' height to 7' width and 6½' height ranging in price from $50.00 to $85.00 each. Grown in a shape more or less resembling old box wood but more loose. It has preponderance of red berries in the Fall.

T. HICKSI—15 plants in sizes from 4' width and 6' height to 5½' width and 7' height ranging from $50.00 to $75.00 each. Grown in pyramidal form and well sheared.

T. BREVIFOLIA NANA—5 plants 7' wide and 3' high at $40.00 each. The real slow growing type.

I also have the following beautiful specimens: RHODODENDRONS—A few white and pink in sizes from 6' wide by 6' high to 8' wide and 9' high.

LAUREL—3 or 4 plants 7' wide by 6' high or larger.

MAGNOLIA STELLATA WATERLILY—From 5' width and 7' height to 6' width and 8' height priced from $40.00 to $50.00 each.

MAGNOLIA SPECIOSA—2 plants, 12' wide by 15' high.

MAGNOLIA CONSPICUA—1 plant, 12' wide by 15' high.

MAGNOLIA LENNEI—2 plants, 10' wide by 12' high.

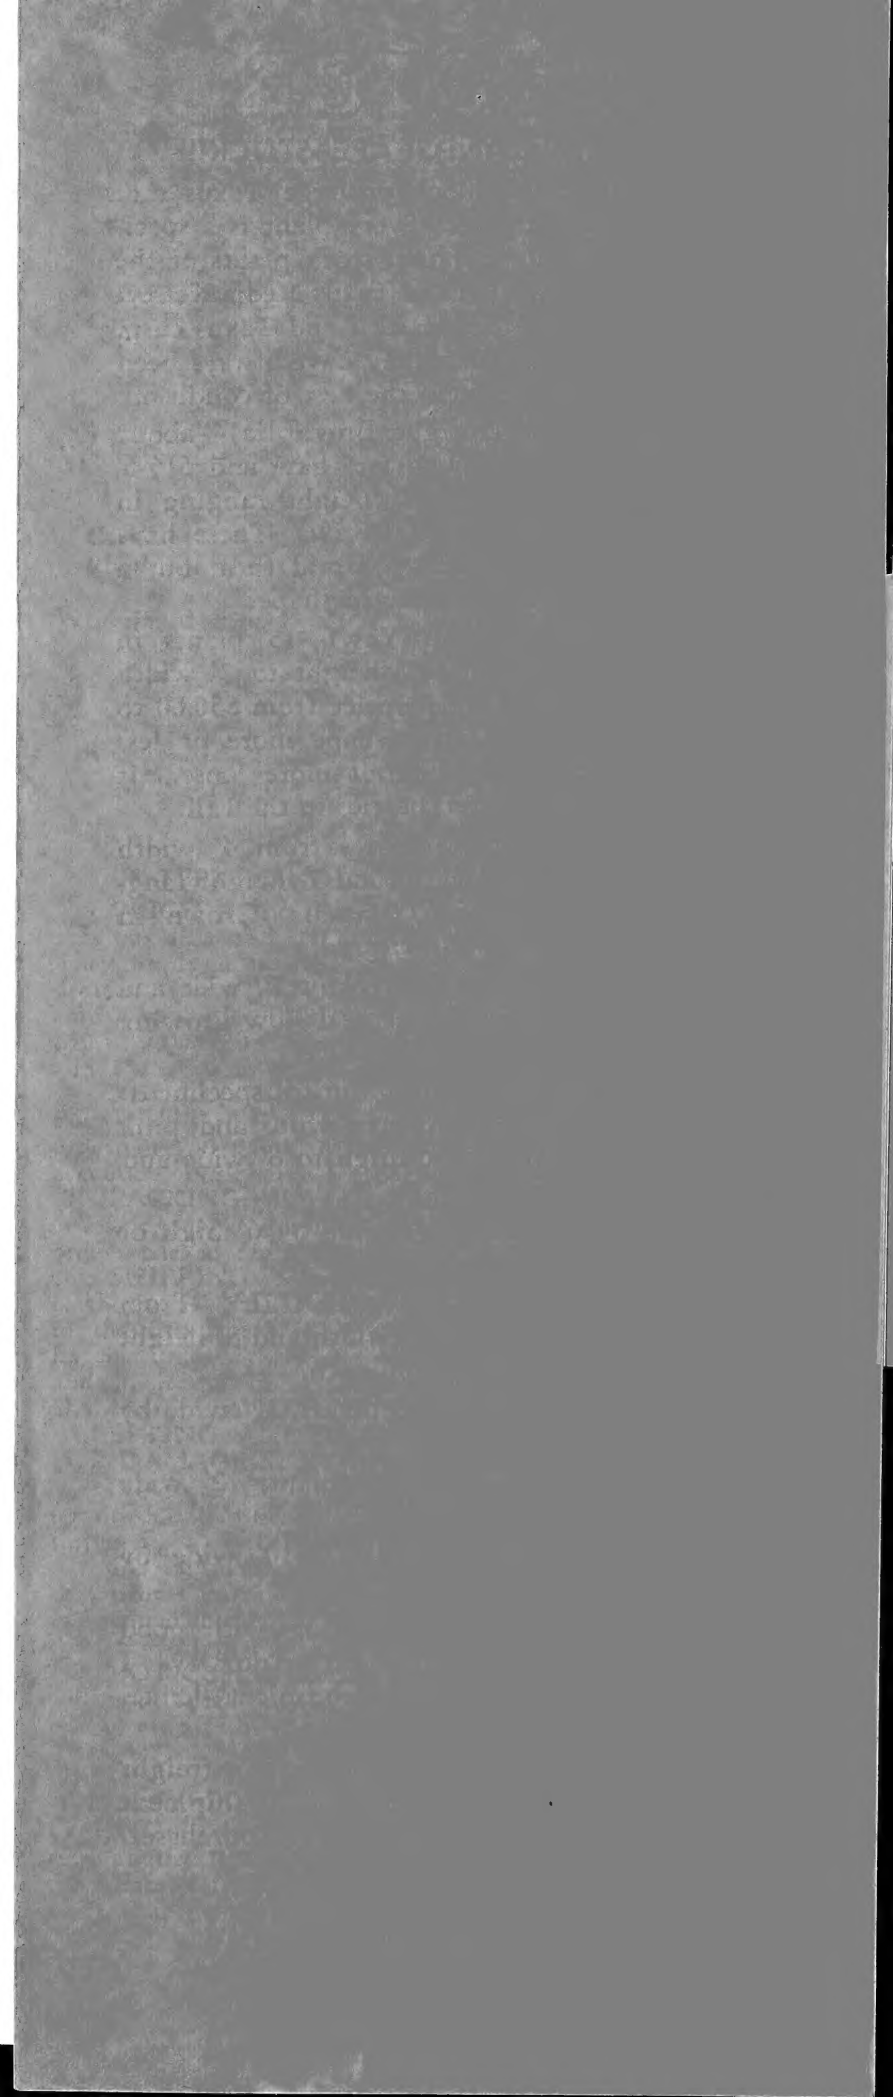

Prices listed are for plants dug with good solid ball and on top of ground at nursery. I am not equipped to dig Mag. conspicua, lennei or speciosa.

Arrangements can be made for truck or freight car loading. Plants can be treated for shipment out of Japanese Beetle Zone at cost to purchaser. Cash only.
